National Sex Offender Public Website (NSOPW) Guidance

For grant and sub grant recipients (recipients) who do not use AmeriCorps approved vendor, Truescreen, to obtain NSOPW checks, may go directly to the NSOPW. The NSOPW is an Internet-based system operated by the U.S. Department of Justice. The system gathers data from all participating State-level sex offender registries plus those operated by Guam, Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia and Tribal Governments. This check can be obtained free of charge from <https://NSOPW.gov>.

INSTRUCTIONS and GUIDANCE

1. Go to www.NSOPW.gov. The nationwide search must be conducted, and it must be documented that an individual in a covered position is eligible to serve or work before starting work or service.
2. Conduct the NSOPW search by using the first and last name of the individual, as reflected on documentation used to verify the identity of the individual in the “Search by Name” feature on <https://NSOPW.gov>. You are only required to check a person’s current name, as reflected on documentation used to determine the name of the individual and as noted in your policies and procedures. Refer to agency guidance on name-based checks in the NSCHC manual.
 - a. Follow the instructions on the www.NSOPW.gov website. The NSOPW search asks for the first and last name only and only has spaces for the first and last name. Enter the first and last name.
 - i. Entering a middle name or initial can often limit results or has the potential to change the results and should not be used in the same search. Adding information beyond the first and last name may result in a noncompliant check for which you may face financial consequences.
 - b. Multiple searches for different names (e.g., middle or maiden names) may be conducted but must be conducted in separate searches. It is prudent to check any other names that the person has used or is/was known by.
 - c. Do not use the Advanced Search feature, which limits the geographic scope of the search and will result in a noncompliant check for which you will face financial consequences.
3. Review the NSOPW results.
 - a. If the individual is a convicted sex offender who is required to register on a sex offender registry, the individual is ineligible to work/serve on an AmeriCorps grant.
 - i. If the results indicate person listed on the NSOPW who has the same name as an applicant you must conduct a more in-depth inquiry to determine whether the person who appears on the NSOPW is your applicant or someone with the same name. The statewide or FBI criminal history search will also provide helpful information to help you determine if the candidate is the person on the registry.

State Check Guidance

For grant and sub grant recipients (recipients) who do not use AmeriCorps approved vendor, Truescreen, to obtain State checks, AmeriCorps has identified the state criminal history record repository and alternatives to the state criminal history record repository in each state and most territories. While many states have more than one source of criminal history information, using any source other than those designated by AmeriCorps is not compliant with the requirements.

AmeriCorps recipients must conduct state checks for states of service/work and residence at time of application. For more information on State of Residence, refer to the NSCHC manual.

- The process and results of a state repository criminal history check will vary by state. It is the responsibility of the grant recipient to abide by state processes and laws. Each state will have a specific process to obtain a criminal history check. AmeriCorps will accept name or fingerprint-based state criminal history checks.
 - Fingerprint-based searches use biometric data (unique fingerprints) and are the most reliable method of obtaining criminal history records.
 - Name-based record checks use biographic information (name, date of birth, gender, and social security numbers). Name-based checks can result in false positives (records that are falsely attributed to the person) or false negatives (records belonging to the person are not identified), and it consumes staff time to verify.
 - Some state repositories will provide different types of check options, beyond fingerprint or name based. Do not select checks that are limited by time, criminal sentence (ex: only felonies reported, past 7 years), etc. The state check must include all included data that dates as far back as the approved sources provide criminal history information.
- After obtaining the state check, the grant recipient must review and adjudicate all results. The adjudication must be documented.
 - Please note that some states will release a “rap sheet” listing all arrests and offenses, while others may provide a summary record reflecting cleared/not cleared based on screening criteria specific to that state. Consequently, you must understand the screening criteria used by the agency that conducts states check(s) to act on results appropriately. At a minimum, AmeriCorps requires that these criteria include individuals convicted of murder and individuals required to register as sex offenders.
- Retain your date-stamped result and adjudication to demonstrate that results were considered even if there are no hits. The regulations require you to document that the results were considered when selecting the individual.
- If a state repository does not allow AmeriCorps to review the results, as required by 45 CFR 2540.206a5, grant recipients may use AmeriCorps approved vendor, Truescreen, whose results are accessible by AmeriCorps.

Designated Statewide Criminal History Repositories and Alternatives

The table below presents a single official criminal history information repository for each state and territory.

These are the repositories which must be used to perform statewide searches for National Service Criminal History Checks. For some states, AmeriCorps has approved the use of an alternative source. If an alternative source has been designated below, unless otherwise qualified, it may be used without further approval from AmeriCorps. Questions on the use of this information should be sent to your AmeriCorps Program Officer or Grants Officer.

FBI Check Guidance

For grant and sub grant recipients (recipients) who do not use AmeriCorps approved vendor, Fieldprint, to obtain FBI checks, AmeriCorps has identified the state criminal history record repository to obtain FBI checks. Most state criminal history information repositories can provide FBI checks along with state checks.

An FBI check is a fingerprint-based search of the FBI's national criminal history database. It returns information from all states and territories in the United States, in contrast to state checks, which are geographically limited.

While an FBI check covers a broad geographical area, it relies on data reported by the states and territories. The information reported varies from jurisdiction to jurisdiction. Consequently, its coverage is broad, but not necessarily deep. Combining an FBI check with state checks in an individual's state of residence and state of service offers the best combination of breadth and depth to ensure a thorough search.

In most cases, the FBI checks you receive will only indicate whether an individual has cleared or not cleared a check against a certain list of criteria, as the FBI generally does not permit the release of criminal history information to entities that are not authorized by law to receive it.

Consequently, you must understand the screening criteria used by the agency that conducts an FBI check to act on results appropriately. At a minimum, AmeriCorps requires that these criteria include individuals convicted of murder and individuals required to register as sex offenders. Your state repository may allow you to add additional screening criteria. Some states may use their own processes for reviewing and screening applicants for certain types of positions. If you use a state repository, contact the repository if you are unsure of the criteria used.

Organizations that legally are authorized by law to receive criminal history information must adjudicate all the results. The adjudication must be documented. If the individual is convicted of murder, listed on a sex offender registry, or required to be on a sex offender registry, the individual is ineligible to work/serve in a covered position.

Retain your date-stamped result and adjudication to demonstrate that results were considered even if there are no hits. The regulations require you to document that the results were considered when selecting the individual.

Documentation and Compliance Checklist

The grant recipient must maintain adequate documentation of their NSCHC process and practices as well as documentation of individual NSCHC grant records.

- Evidence of adopted NSCHC Policies and Procedures
 - Describes how grant recipient will address all NSCHC requirements, including the AmeriCorps approved sources to be used for conducting NSCHC and practices for documenting adherence to NSCHC eligibility determination and timing requirements
 - Describes practices for protecting information related to NSCHC. Grant recipients must take reasonable steps to protect the confidentiality of any information relating to the criminal history check, consistent with authorization provided by the applicant.
 - Describes adopted procedures for informing individuals of their rights related to NSCHC and how NSCHC results will be used by the program
 - Where applicable, describes process for monitoring NSCHC of sub-recipients and/or service locations
 - Describes how notice is provided to an individual that selection into the program is contingent upon the organization's review of the individual's NSCHC component results, if any; and
 - Describes how the program complies with the requirements to provide a reasonable opportunity for the individual to review and challenge the factual accuracy of the result before action is taken to exclude the candidate from the position
- Evidence of required annual staff training by retaining certificate of completion of the AmeriCorps e-course training
 - Ensure staff retake the course prior to expiration of the certificate. Retain certificates of completion from each year as grant records.

Grant Recipients must follow these steps to document the NSCHC Process for each individual file:

- Evidence that all required components (NSOPW, State(s), and FBI checks) were completed and on file (45 CFR §2540.206)
 - All required components (NSOPW, State(s), and FBI) were conducted on time (45 CFR §2540.205) and documentation reflects evidence of when checks were reviewed (adjudicated) and considered when making an eligibility determination
- All required components ((NSOPW, State(s), and FBI checks) were conducted through sources authorized by AmeriCorps (45 CFR §2540.204) and are consistent with the sources described in the grant recipient's adopted NSCHC policies and procedures
- Evidence that NSOPW results include searches from all States, Territories, and Indian Tribes (45 CFR §2540.204)
- Evidence that First and Last Names used on name-based checks reflect the current name of the individual
 - Documents used to determine an individual's first and last name must be consistent with sources described in the grant recipient's adopted NSCHC policies and procedures. Refer to agency guidance on name-based checks in the NSCHC Manual.

- Documentation of consent from the candidate to conduct State and FBI checks and share results (45 CFR §2540.206)
- Documentation that the candidate is eligible to serve/work if a vendor returns a “do not recommend” result for the candidate (45 CFR §2540.206)
 - NOTE: A vendor's adjudication recommendation not to "recommend" the candidate indicates that the selecting organization needs more information before it can make a final determination as to the fitness of the individual to work or serve. It does not mean that an individual is ineligible for work or service.
 - Grant recipients must maintain adequate documentation of the process implemented to make an eligibility determination and may include a contemporaneously dated memo to the file documenting determination of the individual's eligibility.

FAQs

1.0 National Sex Offender Public Website (NSOPW.gov) Checks

1.1 If the FBI check captures crimes that are also identified on the sex offender registry and in state criminal history databases, why does AmeriCorps require separate checks of the NSOPW and state criminal history information databases?

The Serve America Act specified the required NSCHC components for individuals in covered positions (42 USC 12645g). Each component pulls data from a different database, and no single database of criminal history information is complete. The NSOPW links public state, territory, and tribal sex offender registries in one national search site.

1.2 When was the date stamp added to the NSOPW website?

The date stamp was added September 4, 2013. Please note that an on-time NSOPW check has always been a compliance requirement for the NSCHC, but the NSOPW website did not always contain a date stamp. Before it did, recipients were required to print or otherwise maintain the NSOPW results in a way that displayed the date and time.

2.0 Statewide Criminal History Checks

2.1 How far back do state repositories maintain data and how many years must I check?

You must obtain data as far back as the approved sources provide criminal history information.

2.2 I run a child abuse registry check on my volunteers since they work with children and it is fitting for our program design. Is this a compliant check for the purposes of the NSCHC?

Recipients should establish additional screening criteria that are appropriate for their program design and beneficiaries, in addition to the NSCHC baseline requirements. Child abuse registry checks are one example of checks that can be used to supplement the minimum NSCHC requirements but running this check alone is not sufficient to meet the NSCHC requirements.

2.3 We operate a nationwide program that places people in many states. Must we check each person against their state of residence in addition to every state in which we operate?

Nationwide programs do not need to check more than two statewide repositories for a candidate. You must check the statewide repository for the state where the applicant resided upon application and the statewide repository for the state where the person will be assigned to work or serve.

3.0 FBI Checks

3.1 May I have AmeriCorps's Originating Agency Identifier (ORI) number to give to my state repository?

AmeriCorps does not have an ORI number. If recipients face any challenges obtaining NSCHC, use Fieldprint and Truescreen.

3.2 Are we allowed to negotiate with state and local law enforcement to obtain checks at reduced cost?

We have been informed that in some cases programs have been able to negotiate with state and local law enforcement to help them obtain checks at reduced cost, and recipients may initiate these discussions.

4.0 Documentation for NSCHC Requirements

4.1 The results we receive do not appear to be actual criminal history records but rather summaries and conclusions on the person's suitability. Should we ask the repository for the detailed record?

State repositories issue either "rap sheets" or summary, adjudicated results. Adjudicated results typically present a "cleared," "not cleared," "undetermined" or similar summary result. You should contact the repository to obtain a list of disqualifying offenses and explanations for what the responses mean. If someone does not clear, you must determine if the disqualifying offense was one that AmeriCorps uses to determine eligibility, or if it is an offense that your program considers to be disqualifying. Except when the FBI releases the NSCHC result directly to the person who is being checked, the FBI checks that are released to our recipients by state repositories and other authorized governmental bodies (including Fieldprint) typically provide adjudicated summary results.

4.2 What if my state either doesn't allow my program to maintain the results of the criminal history checks or limits the amount of time that results can be maintained?

The regulations require you to retain the NSOPW and criminal history information results. If state law prohibits or limits you in retaining this documentation, use AmeriCorps approved vendors Truescreen and Fieldprint.
