

AmeriCorps NCCC Southern Region at a Glance

AmeriCorps NCCC is a national service program whose mission is to strengthen communities and develop leaders through direct, team-based national and community service. Within a full-time, residential setting, AmeriCorps NCCC members are assigned to a regional campus and placed onto teams of eight to 12 members. Over the course of their 10-month service term, each team will complete a series of different projects in different places, with each project lasting three to eight weeks. Members work on projects with sponsoring organizations to address local community needs in the areas of energy conservation, environmental stewardship, infrastructure improvement, natural and other disaster services, and urban and rural development.

About the Office of Research and Evaluation

The AmeriCorps Office of Research and Evaluation assists AmeriCorps and its partners in collecting, analyzing, and disseminating data and insights about AmeriCorps programs and civic life in America.

"I was completely impressed with their motivation and dedication... [The team] insisted on staying and helping until the job was done. This is not something that you see in a lot of youth. They are a special group of people."
