Lodging

You will be assigned a dorm that will serve as your "home base" during your term of service with the Southern Region campus. The dormitories are co-ed with two to four people living in each room, with each room divided by gender. Roommate assignments are made shortly before your arrival on campus, so you can meet your roommate(s) when you get here. A typical room has bunk beds, closet space, drawers and desks. There are lounges with cable television and outdoor patios for relaxing.

The Southern Region supports service projects in 17 states, the District of Columbia and several territories: Alabama, Connecticut, Washington DC, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky, Louisiana, Massachusetts, Maryland, Mississippi, North Carolina, New Jersey, Rhode Island, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, West Virginia, The US Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

Things to do

While on campus, you can choose to explore some of the most fascinating historic sites and enjoy delicious Southern cooking, soak in beauty of the Riverwalk murals while listening to the Mississippi Blues. Just a few minutes from campus is the Vicksburg national Military Park which hosts miles of secluded, woodland roads that visitors can use to walk, run or tour to learn about the Siege of Vicksburg. Although you won't spend much time on campus, the genuine warmth and kindness of the people you meet will make it feel like home. After long day of training, there is nothing like hanging out on the porch in a rocking chair listening as the Southern evening falls.
