

The AmeriCorps Experience:

Bridging Differences

Findings from the Member Exit Survey (2016-2022)

92% of members feel they made a difference in the life of at least one person

87%

of members believe their service experience Career Skills furthered their professional goals

86% of members show consistent effort to accomplish their goals

90% of members believe they have the ability of members respect the values of people from different cultures and 96% backgrounds of members enjoy

97%

Civic Engagaria 86%

> of members feel prepared to create a plan to address a problem in their community

82%

to handle whatever comes their way

of members are involved or plan to become involved in issues that positively affect their community

About the Office of Research and Evaluation

interacting with people

from different cultures and backgrounds

The AmeriCorps Office of Research and Evaluation assists AmeriCorps and its partners in collecting, analyzing, and disseminating data and insights about AmeriCorps programs and civic life in America.

About AmeriCorps

AmeriCorps, the federal agency for national service and volunteerism, provides opportunities for Americans to serve their country domestically, address the nation's most pressing challenges, improve lives and communities, and strengthen civic engagement. Each year, the agency places more than 200,000 AmeriCorps members and AmeriCorps Seniors volunteers in intensive service roles; and empowers millions more to serve as long-term, short-term, or one-time volunteers. Learn more at AmeriCorps.gov.

Get Started

Learn more about available service opportunities at https://americorps.gov/serve/

AmeriCorps Member Exit Survey Data (MES) (2016-2022). AmeriCorps Office of Research and Evaluation. For more information:

- Learn more about the MES
- Explore MES data

Produced and published at U.S. taxpayer expense