National Service Criminal History Check Resource Update

AmeriCorps wants to ensure your success with the national service criminal history check rule. Grant recipients can access recorded trainings, review summary information, and FAQs regarding the rule on our Knowledge Network.

Read about our updated resources:

- Vermont recently joined the National Fingerprint File Program and the National Fingerprint File Pre-Approved Waiver has been updated to include Vermont. This update and information about the National Fingerprint File Program can be found in the "National Service Criminal History Check Manual."
- "May 1 Rule Interim FAQs" include questions regarding the new Fieldprint improvements. This update included information on the new Fieldprint improvements.
- A recording of the most recent training is posted in Litmos and a link to the training is available on the Knowledge Network
