

National Service in Virginia

MEETING COMMUNITY NEEDS IN VIRGINIA

More than 6,400 people of all ages and backgrounds are helping to meet local needs, strengthen communities, and increase civic engagement through national service in Virginia. Serving at more than 930 locations throughout the state, these citizens tutor and mentor children, support veterans and military families, provide health services, restore the environment, respond to disasters, increase economic opportunity, and recruit and manage volunteers.

This year, the Corporation for National and Community Service (CNCS) will commit more than $11,860,000 to support Virginia communities through national service initiatives. CNCS invests in cost-effective community solutions--working hand in hand with local partners to improve lives, expand economic opportunity, and engage citizens in solving problems in their communities. Serving in many of the state's most impoverished communities, CNCS provides vital support to schools, food banks, homeless shelters, community health clinics, youth centers, veterans service facilities, and other nonprofit and faith-based organizations at a time of growing demand for services. Through a unique public-private partnership, this federal investment will leverage an additional $5,840,000 in other resources to strengthen community impact, build local support, and increase return on taxpayer dollars.

AmeriCorps: This year AmeriCorps will provide more than 680 individuals the opportunity to provide intensive, results-driven service to meet education, environmental, health, economic, and other pressing needs in communities across Virginia. Most AmeriCorps grant funding goes to the Office on Volunteerism and Community Service, which in turn awards grants to nonprofit groups to respond to local needs. Most of the remainder of the grant funding is distributed by CNCS directly to multi-state and national organizations through a competitive grants process. Other individuals serve through AmeriCorps VISTA, whose members help bring individuals and communities out of poverty by serving full-time to fight illiteracy, improve health services, create businesses, and increase housing opportunities, and AmeriCorps NCCC (National Civilian Community Corps), a 10-month, full time residential program for men and women between the ages of 18 and 24. In exchange for their service, AmeriCorps members earn an education award that can be used to pay for college or to pay back qualified student loans. Since 1994, more than 14,000 Virginia residents have served more than 22 million hours and have qualified for Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards totaling more than $44,730,000.

Senior Corps: More than 5,700 seniors in Virginia contribute their time and talents in one of three Senior Corps programs. Foster Grandparents serve one-on-one as tutors and mentors to more than 1,100 young people who have special needs. Senior Companions help more than 430 homebound seniors and other adults maintain independence in their own homes. RSVP volunteers conduct safety patrols, renovate homes, protect the environment, tutor and mentor youth, respond to natural disasters, and provide other services through more than 610 groups across Virginia.

Social Innovation Fund: The Social Innovation Fund transforms lives and communities using limited federal investment as a catalyst to grow the impact of nonprofits with evidence of strong results. It harnesses the expertise of grantmaking intermediaries to identify, evaluate and expand effective nonprofits and engages funding partners to contribute nearly three dollars to every one federal dollar invested. As the Social Innovation Fund network grows programs that work in Virginia, more people are able to overcome their most pressing challenges in the areas of economic opportunity, health, and youth development. The Social Innovation Fund is investing $1,580,000 in expanding the impact of 3 nonprofits in Virginia, selected and supported by 1 intermediary.

The Corporation for National and Community Service is a federal agency that improves lives, strengthens communities, and fosters civic engagement through service and volunteering. CNCS annually engages more than five million Americans in service to meet local needs through Senior Corps, AmeriCorps, and national days of service; improves communities through the Social Innovation Fund, and leads President Obama's national call to service initiative, United We Serve. Notes: The data shown represents a snapshot in time. CNCS project sites, participants, and funding change throughout the year, so the data may not reflect current conditions.

- This figure represents the number of awarded positions available to be filled in the 2013 - 2014 program year. For AmeriCorps VISTA, this represents the actual number of VISTA members in active service.
- This figure represents the maximum potential value of Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards that can be earned by AmeriCorps members serving in Virginia. The award can be used in any state to pay for college, graduate school, vocational training, or to pay back student loans. The education award total is included in total CNCS funding.
- AmeriCorps National figures may include national programs headquartered in the state and/or operating sites of national programs that are headquartered in other states. Funding reflects the estimated proportionate share of the national grant associated with operating sites in this report. Some national organizations do not report operating site data, or it was not available at time of publishing, so figures may not reflect current conditions.
- Virginia is served by the AmeriCorps NCCC campus located in Vicksburg, Mississippi. In the past year, AmeriCorps NCCC teams have served on projects in Fairfax, Charlottesville, Mount Weather, Great Falls, Woodbridge, Winchester, New Castle, Delaplane, Suffolk, Herndon.
- The service location total may contain multiple counts of unique locations where multiple CNCS programs are operating.
- As part of its public-private partnership approach, CNCS requires grantees to leverage additional resources to strengthen community impact and increase the return on the federal investment. This figure reflects non-CNCS cash and in-kind resources that CNCS grantees and project sponsors have committed to raise to support their programming activities across the state.

Since 1994, more than 14,000 Virginia residents have served more than 22 million hours and have qualified for Segal AmeriCorps Education Awards totaling more than $44,730,000.

National Service Impact in Virginia

AmeriCorps

At the CARITAS AmeriCorps Program in Richmond, AmeriCorps members provide intensive job-readiness training to men with significant barriers to employment such as homelessness, addiction, felony convictions. Of those who complete the program, 76 percent are employed within one year. AmeriCorps members mentor men on a pathway to recovery from addiction; and more than 65 percent of program participants continue their sobriety one year out. AmeriCorps members also refurbish and distribute furniture and household goods to those moving from shelters to permanent housing, outfitting more than 800 families with essential items each year. To engage the community and create sustainability, CARITAS has a vibrant volunteer recruitment program; AmeriCorps members recruit and serve with approximately 1,000 volunteers annually.

AmeriCorps NCCC

An AmeriCorps NCCC team worked with the Local Energy Alliance Program in Charlottesville. The team educated more than 1,200 community members, conducted more than 170 Energy Savvy Surveys, canvassed 5,085 homes, and completed 81 energy reviews. Those who took part in the program received a free home review valued at $500. The review suggested ways the homeowner could lower their energy costs. AmeriCorps NCCC members gained public speaking skills and learned methods to make homes energy efficient.

AmeriCorps VISTA

The Advancement Foundation, an AmeriCorps VISTA intermediary in Vinton, provides development services to nonprofits in Southwest Virginia. AmeriCorps VISTA members serve with a number of small organizations to develop fundraising capacities. An AmeriCorps VISTA member at God's Storehouse in Danville obtained a $30,000 grant from Wal-Mart to provide food to individuals with limited resources and assist in healthy lifestyle classes. Several VISTAs have developed mobile food pantry programs at the Southwest Virginia Feeding America site to serve the surrounding rural low-income communities. Using her grant writing skills and creative networking talents, an AmeriCorps VISTA helped secure $60,000 from the Buchanan County Board of Supervisors to support four mobile food pantries throughout the rural county for one year.

Senior Corps

New River Valley Agency on Aging has sponsored the Pulaski County RSVP Program for more than 20 years. Almost 180 RSVP volunteers serve the rural communities in the Southwest Virginia foothills of the Appalachian Mountains. These volunteers prepare and/or serve more than 26,500 meals annually with the Pulaski Daily Bread site. They also provide home assistance and companionship to 225 seniors and make daily telephone calls to 125 homebound seniors. As a major sponsor of the Regional Caregivers Conference, Pulaski County RSVP grew the once half day session into a full 2-day conference featuring nationally renowned presenters/speakers for 200 professional and family caregivers.

Social Innovation Fund

The Dan River Region Collaborative (DRRC) serves a three-county, two-city rural area in south central Virginia including Danville and Pittsylvania counties and has been awarded $300,000 over two years by Social Innovation Fund (SIF) intermediary Jobs for the Future. They will match their award dollar-for-dollar with nonfederal funds. DRRC supports three workforce partnerships in the fields of advanced manufacturing, energy and health care. The SIF award will allow DRRC to scale up successful strategies, extend their geographic footprint into Patrick County and potentially partner with border counties in North Carolina. In addition, DRRC will explore the creation of an information technology partnership to serve the growing number of businesses taking advantage of the region's investment in an 800+ mile fiber optic broadband network. They plan to serve 200 job seekers and 500 incumbent workers.
